SUBJECT: Alarich BROSS

RESULTS OF POLICE AND NEIGHBORHOOD INVESTIGATION:

1. Subject roomed with a Mr. Kassar. Kassar can be described as a man liking a little too much to drink, but a rather closed character, and having a spiritual interest in politics.

2. Subject traveled a good deal for Kassar on business. His trips took him often to Frankfurt, Munich and Dusseldorf. Subject and Kassar have done a great deal of typing while in their rooms together.

3. Subject has mentioned that he was a successful businessman before the war. He had been a staff officer stationed in Finland during the war, and his wife and two children are still there. Cannot bring his family here until he is better established.

4. Subject and Kassar had a good business from 1945 to 1949. Later on they were in dire need of finances. Differences of opinion gave Subject the initial desire to find other employment in Frankfurt.

5. The source sums up Subject as follows:

a. Subject was pro-Nazi during the war, but has no interest in politics at the present time.

b. Subject has a good character, is a perfect gentleman in behavior and manners.

c. Subject is very trustworthy.

d. His only weakness is women.

6. Subject moved to Kissen in April 1951. He lived with Dr. Prings, a well known scientist in the field of chemistry and physics, and as co-owner of the factory where Subject was employed. Subject worked in a small building behind the factory ("Laboratorium Kissen, Chemikalien und Werkzeugen") with one other employee. The building was full of files, and it is believed that it was set up as a safe place for the factory. Subject also traveled a good deal on business for Dr. Prings.
